Considering that the aim of this agreement is to achieve wider exchange of information between its members and to promote co-operation between them;

The parties agree as follows:

1 - The Brazilian National School of Judges and Virginia Tech will maintain co-operation by exchanging non-confidential information and publications and participating in courses (non-credit) offered by both institutions.

2 - The Brazilian National School of Judges and Virginia Tech will organize meetings with representatives of both institutions in order to exchange experiences and discuss themes related to this agreement.

3 - The first judges’ exchange between the Brazilian National School of Judges and Virginia Tech will happen in May of 2007. Brazilian judges will travel to Virginia from May 28 to June 09 to learn about the federal, state, and local judicial systems, Virginia Cooperative Extension programs related to 4-H youth development, youth at risk programming, CHARACTER COUNTS!SM, a character education program, and parenting education.

4 - Virginia Tech judges may visit Brazil in the near future.

5 - Each party shall be responsible for its own expenses related to participation under this agreement.

6 - This agreement is valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of execution by both parties hereto, except for notice of termination written by either of the parties to be effective within thirty (30) days, and may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties.
Having read this AGREEMENT and understanding the context reach of each clause it is signed by:
