Effective Date and Termination of Agreement

The obligations of each institution under this agreement are limited to the exchange of students and do not extend to partners or dependents. Expenses of accompanying dependents and partners are the responsibility of the exchange student and are not included in the agreement.
In accordance with the above terms of participation, the following stipulations are applied:

1. This agreement shall be in effect for five years from the date of its signing. At the expiration of the agreement, each institution will exchange a brief report indicating any amendments of the agreement, and/or extensions by mutual written consent of both institutions for a period beyond the original date of expiration. Either party may terminate this agreement by written notice to the other party. In the event that one party desires to terminate the agreement, written notice shall be delivered to the other party at least six months in advance of the expiration date. Otherwise, the agreement will continue in full force and effect until terminated by written notice or expiration.

2. Each party shall maintain the confidentiality of all information exchanged under this agreement.

3. Any disputes arising under this agreement shall be resolved through mediation or arbitration as mutually agreed upon by the parties.
