The full text of the agreement, not any constraints be imposed by either upon the other.

3. The agreement is not intended to be a directly binding document. It is meant to describe the nature shall be separately negotiated and determined by both universities.

2. The parties recognize that the implementation of any exchange program will depend on the resources, according to the agreement, the implementation of each exchange program based on the agreement.

- Organization of academic exchanges agreeable to both universities
- Organization of joint conferences
- Organization of joint research programs
- Exchange of personnel and other publications
- Exchange of academic information and materials
- Joint supervision of M.S. and Ph.D. students
- Exchange of students (undergraduate and graduate)
- Exchange of faculty

their respective academic and educational needs.

1. The universities agree to encourage the development of the following exchange programs based on respective scholars and students will be increased by the establishment of such exchange programs.

educational process at both institutions will be enriched and that mutual understanding between their exchanging schools' students' academic information and materials in the belief that the research and This agreement is based on the principle of reciprocity and expresses the interest of both parties in implementation this Memorandum of Understanding when all required signatures have been affixed.

The University of Turku and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)
5. For Virginia Tech, James Hedison, and for the University of Tübingen, Peter Rinnert, shall serve as liaison officers for this agreement.

The agreement in order to avoid any possible inconvenience to the other institution.

As such, the agreement is understood that such action would only be taken after mutual consultation in order to avoid any possible inconvenience to the other institution.

The agreement as written agreement. It is also understood that further consultation may terminate the agreement prior to the period of five (5) years, and is subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement. This agreement will be subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement.

4. The agreement shall become effective on the day of signature of both universities, and their signatures and seals, will be in force for a period of five (5) years, and is subject to revision or modification by mutual written agreement.