

List of Approved Courses for the Graduate Certificate in International Research

NOTE: Independent and Special Studies as well as courses taken abroad are accepted but must be relevant to international development and are subject to approval by the Certificate Advisory Committee.

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences

AAEC 4304: Environment and Sustainable Development Economics
AAEC 5154: International Agricultural Development and Trade
AAEC 5244: Rural Development
ALS/GEOG/NR/UAP 4404: Approaches to International Development
CSES 4124: Soil Survey and Taxonomy
CSES 4544: Forage Crop Ecology
ENT/PPWS 4264: Pesticide Usage

College of Architecture and Urban Studies

UAP 4184: Community Involvement
UAP/WS 4214: Women, Environment and Development in a Global Perspective
UAP/GEOG/SOC 4764: International Development Policy and Planning
GIA/UAP 5034: Democratic Governance of the Economy
UAP 5274: Comparative Social Movements
UAP 5364: NGOs in International Development
UAP 5394: Nature, Society, and the Global Economy: Interdisciplinary Perspectives
UAP 5404: Strategies for Urban Development in the Third World
UAP/SOC 5524: International Development
UAP 5764: International Development Studio

Pamplin College of Business

BIT 5494: International Operations and Information Technology
FIN 5184: Currencies and Global Finance
MGT 5784: International Management
MKTG 5704: International Marketing Strategy

College of Liberal Arts and Human Sciences

AHRM 5304: Family Economics
AHRM 6214: International Production and Trade of Textiles and Apparel
EDCI 6034: Education and Anthropology
HIST 5534: Imperialism, Nationalism, and Decolonization
HIST 5914: Race and Slavery in Comparative Perspective
PSCI/GEOG/UAP 5264: Global Change and Local Impacts
PSCI 5434: Politics of Developing Areas
SOC/GEOG 5654: The Global Division of Labor
SOC 5504: Population Processes and Policies
SPAN 4334: Special Topics in Hispanic Life, Literature and Language
SPAN 5234: Spanish-American Institutions and Concepts
STS 6664: Advanced Topics in Science & Technology Policy

College of Engineering

BSE 4394: Water Supply and Sanitation in Developing Countries

CEE 4114: Fundamentals of Public Health Engineering

ECE 4364: Alternative Energy Systems

ISE 4304: Global Issues in Industrial Management

College of Natural Resources

FOR/CSES 4334: Principles and Practices of Agroforestry

GEOG 4204: Geography of Resources

GEOG 5204: Geography of Third World Development

GEOG 5214: Health and Global Environment

GEOG 5424: Topics in Political Geography

NR 5114: Global Issues in Natural Resources

College of Science

ECON 4124: Growth and Development

ECON 6054: Development Economics